David Arquette's Trip to Africa Inspires Safari Experience for Charity

NEW YORK, Sept. 9, 2011 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ -- Before joining this season's cast of Dancing with The Stars, actor David Arquette took his first trip to Africa with nonprofit organization Malaria No More. While there, David distributed mosquito nets to families in need, talked with parents who are working to protect their children from malaria and met with village chiefs to learn how their communities are fighting the deadly disease.

Inspired by his trip and work to raise awareness and funds, Premier Tours and South African Airways are offering a dream vacation for auction in honor of David's 40th birthday. The prize is a five-day all-inclusive trip for two to Makweti Safari Lodge in South Africa , including round-trip airfare, all meals, and a safari tour from Premier Tours, which has won Conde Nast Travelers "Best Travel Specialist in North America" award 10 years in a row and Travel and Leisure "A List" of Travel Specialists 6 years in row.

The winning bid will be matched by Sumitomo Chemical and go towards Arquette's Birthday Giveback Campaign for Malaria No More. Anyone can bid on this dream vacation through September 15th on CharityBuzz: <http://bit.ly/onpCHO>

Fans can also support Arquette's Birthday Giveback Campaign by making a simple donation on his Crowdrise page, where photos and video from his recent trip are featured: www.Crowdrise.com/ArquetteGiveBack .

Premier Tours-Sponsored Luxury Safari Lodge Stay Featured In Coveted 2010 “Everybody Wins at the Oscars” Nominee Gift Baskets*

Premier Tours, in partnership with world renowned Lion Sands Game Reserves, is proud to have been selected to provide a private and exclusive four-night stay, at the luxurious Lion Sands 1933 Safari Lodge, to the Academy Award’s talented Nominees in the best actor, best supporting actor, best actress, best supporting actress, & best director categories. The 82nd Academy Awards ceremony, hosted by the Academy Of Motion Picture Arts And Sciences, will be held March 07, 2010 in Hollywood, California.

Premier Tours has over the years received wonderful accolades from various high profile travel publications, including the prestigious Conde Nast Traveler Magazine. Nominees will be confident that all of their travel requirements are expertly attended as they luxuriate in breath-taking surroundings, take guided safaris and relax in complete privacy and comfort.

Commenting on the firm’s high profile with the Academy Awards Nominees, Premier Tours co-owner Julian Harrison said, “I am delighted that Premier Tours was selected to offer such an exhilarating travel experience to the Oscar Nominees. Having grown up in Africa, I know how awe-inspiring this continent is. The special memories our guests create here will stay with them forever.”

‘Premier Tours offers a unique experience to even the most seasoned traveler,’ Harrison added. “So when nominees as widely traveled as George Clooney, Meryl Streep and Quentin Tarrantino are looking for somewhere new and exciting to explore, we’ll be pleased to share our expertise and knowledge of this magnificent destination.”

Recognized internationally as providing ‘one of the best safari experience in Africa’, Lion Sands offers three low impact, luxury lodges located in the game rich Sabi Sands region of the famous Kruger National Park in South Africa. The focus of Lion Sands is not only on quality game viewing, cuisine, wine, design and luxury, but being family owned and operated, the lodges encapsulate both warmth and personal ambience to provide a world class luxury safari experience.

Harrison is also the co-author of a book entitled "African Safari" published by Fodor's Travel Guides. For further information on the safari lodges that will host the Oscar Nominees, visit Lion Sands Lodges.
